If you do not have any Internationally Recognized English Language Competence Certificate, or if your score is insufficient, upon arrival you will sit for GAU's English Exams and will be allocated either to the appropriate level of GAU's English Foundation Program (FEP) or to the department of your selected degree study.

Important information:

■ If you are found eligible to join Girne American University, you are to deposit 2300 EUR as a non refundable deposit to the university bank account and send us the transfer details. After the receipt is sent and the amount is transferred, you will receive your official acceptance letter.

■ Fees and charges are not refundable.

■ According to the scholarship regulations, the tuition fee scholarship is valid throughout your study, provided that you don't withdraw from the University before the end of the program. If you decide to withdraw before the end of the program, you will be required to pay the balance of the discounted tuition fee.

■ Dormitory rooms are allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. The rooms are allocated to only fully accepted and confirmed students. Students who are interested in staying in the dormitory should stay in the dormitory one academic year. A dormitory fee and dormitory deposit of 200 EUR are required. Summer dormitory fees are charged separately.
