

NWEKWO, Godson Tochukwu

Mr. Godson is a Politics and International Studies Ph.D candidate at Girne American University. He holds a Bachelor's degree in International Law & Diplomacy from Babcock University and an LLM in International Business Law from Girne American University. In 2015 he worked at the GAU vocational school as an Instructor in Case Study Analysis and Insurance and Brokers Skills. He is the author of a book on "The Harmonization and Unification of International Trade Law in Africa: An Analysis of the CISG" which is cataloged within the UNCITRAL online Library and databases. He has a few several academic article publications. His current research projects are on "Child rights and Child Soldiers in Africa" and "The Functionality of International Economic Sanctions".

Mr. Godson is a member of the Executive Board of Rehoboth Spring Charity International and Med Karpaz Educational & Travel Consult which he partly co-founded. Having developed excellent communicational skills and attributes partly attained from his disciplined practice and field of study he refers to himself as a compassionate intellectual driven to restorative studies and activities.